

Acknowledgments

NOAA Fisheries wishes to acknowledge Michael P. Sissenwine, Science and Research Director, Northeast Fisheries Science Center, for his leadership role in producing this report, and the following individuals for their contributions to the report.

Editor: Amy Gautam

Co-editors: Mark Holliday, Rebecca Lent

Feature Articles

The Economics of Bycatch and Bycatch Management in the U.S. EEZ Groundfish Fisheries off Alaska: Joseph Terry

The U.S. Pacific Tuna Industry: Sam Herrick

Limited Entry in Hawaii's Major Commercial Fisheries: Sam Pooley

Economic Interactions between the Shrimp and Red Snapper Fisheries in the U.S. Gulf of Mexico: James Waters

The Surf Clam ITQ Management: An Evaluation: Stanley Wang

Alaska Regional Report

Regional contributors: Dave Colpo, Angie Greig, Dick Kinoshita, Joseph Terry, Cindy Thomson

West Coast Regional Report

Regional contributors: Jim Hastie, Wes Silverthorne, Cindy Thomson

Western Pacific Regional Report

Regional contributor: Sam Pooley

Southeast Regional Report

Regional coordinator: Richard Raulerson

Regional contributors: Bill Antozzi, Steve Holiman, John Vondruska, John Ward

Northeast Regional Report

Regional coordinator: Andrew Kitts

Regional contributors: Andrew Kitts, Barbara Pollard Rountree, Scott Steinback, John Walden

National Overview

Contributors: Steven Edwards, Amy Gautam

Cover

A computer-generated image, modified and colored by David Stanton, NMS Scientific Publications Office, after a monochrome gouache painting by Harold Spiess, NMFS Scientific Publications Office, retired.

Additional editorial reviews and technical assistance were provided by Willis Hobart and Shelley Arenas of the NMFS Scientific Publications Office.